

ANTTI PELTOMÄKI

Antti Peltomäki was born in 1956, Finland. He has been studying law in the University of Helsinki. Peltomäki has been working for instance as an advisor in EFTA Brussels office and as a governmental official in the Ministry of Justice.

He has followed the EU matters very closely. From 1997 until 2003 Peltomäki was the Under-Secretary of the State of the EU affairs. And in 2003, Peltomäki began his post as the State Secretary of Finland within the EU affairs in the Finnish Prime Minister's office, until he was nominated as head of the European Commission Representation in Finland in spring 2006.

